

DRESSAGE CLINIC with Ulf Wadeborn, S

July 2, 2018 at BCHP

Ulf Wadeborn (pronounced Vah-duh-born) is a native of Sweden and is currently based in California. He was educated at the Swedish National Riding School, is a certified 'R' judge in Sweden, as well as an 'S' USEF judge in the US. Ulf trains and competes in CA and is available to us in a clinic format. He is a bronze, silver and gold USDF medalist with 45+ years' experience.

What sets Ulf apart is his ability to educate all levels of horse-rider combinations. Ulf's goal is to teach the elements of the training scale; establishing all the prerequisites while maintaining the horse's mental suppleness and maximum benefit from the exercises. His patience and compassion for both the horse and rider are paramount.

We are fortunate to have the opportunity to learn from him – he is an instructor who believes in your ability before you do, challenges you without overwhelming you, and who will teach you problem solving through an understanding of the training scale.

If you are interested in riding in the clinic please return the completed entry form with payment to:
